Building Conditions

“Pamela Wheeler, a 72-year-old resident of Queensbridge North, said she has been unable to fully use her kitchen sink since 2019 — despite multiple work requests to fix the leak and clogged drain.”

Neglect By NYCHA

“This is an extremely important because the tenants are going out to file these repair tickets and the repair people don't do the repairs and if they end up doing it, it's pretty shoddy and it's not good conditions,” said Robert Sanderman, a senior staff attorney at Queens Legal Services.

Community Solidarity

The image is a screenshot of a Facebook group page. At the top, the Facebook logo is on the left, and there are input fields for 'Email or phone' and 'Password', along with 'Log In' and 'Forgot Account?' links. Below this is the group header for 'QUEENSBRIDGE HOUSES RESIDENT ASSOCIATION', featuring a profile picture, a 'Join group' button, and a search icon. The main content is a post with a blue background and white text that reads: 'Is anyone experiencing no hot water? Yesterday all day came back on last night. Now today no hot water'. Below the post, there are 8 likes and 18 comments. The interaction buttons for 'Like', 'Comment', and 'Share' are visible. Underneath, it says 'View 6 previous answers' and shows the start of a comment from a user with a blacked-out name: 'I live on 40 Vernon. There is a broken pipe in one of the buildings and we all have to suffer because NYCHA still don't respect us to tell us what's going on. But for anything ells for their convenient they put up flyers. What is the Property & assistance Property manager'. To the right of the post, there are two sections: 'Public' (Anyone can see who's in the group and what they post.) and 'Visible' (Anyone can find this group.). Below that is a section titled 'Popular topics in this group' with three hashtags: '#onepeople' (1 post), '#RiisSettlement' (3 posts), and '#griefsupport' (2 posts). A 'See all' button is at the bottom of this section. At the very bottom right, there is a 'Recent media' section with a partially visible image.
